HARRY S. TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION - During the third week of November President Duff will nominate one or two SOPHOMORE students who will take part in the Truman Scholarship competition. Seventy-nine scholarships covering school expenses up to $5000 annually are available for students preparing for careers in government. To participate, students must have a B average and be in the upper fourth of their class, and they must be active in public service work and student leadership positions. Scholarships granted for the junior year will be renewed for the senior year and two years of graduate study. Interested students should contact Charles F. Carroll, history, south campus. November 3 is the last day for applications.

POSITIONS OPEN - An internal and external search is on for candidates for the positions of Dean of the College of Health Professions and Dean of the College of Pure & Applied Sciences. November 14 is the deadline for submitting applications to Dr. Daniel Diamond, Chairperson, Search Committee for the Dean of the College of Pure & Applied Sciences or Dr. Patricia Goler, Chairperson, Search Committee for Dean of the College of Health Professions.

NEW LOWELL PLAY The Lowell Historic Preservation Commission is sponsoring a competition to develop a play about Lowell to be performed at the 1981 Lowell Festival. It is suggested that only experienced playwrights or authors enter the competition. A prize of $2,000 will be awarded to the writer whose work is selected. Please call Jim St. Clair at 458-7654 for details and guidelines.
